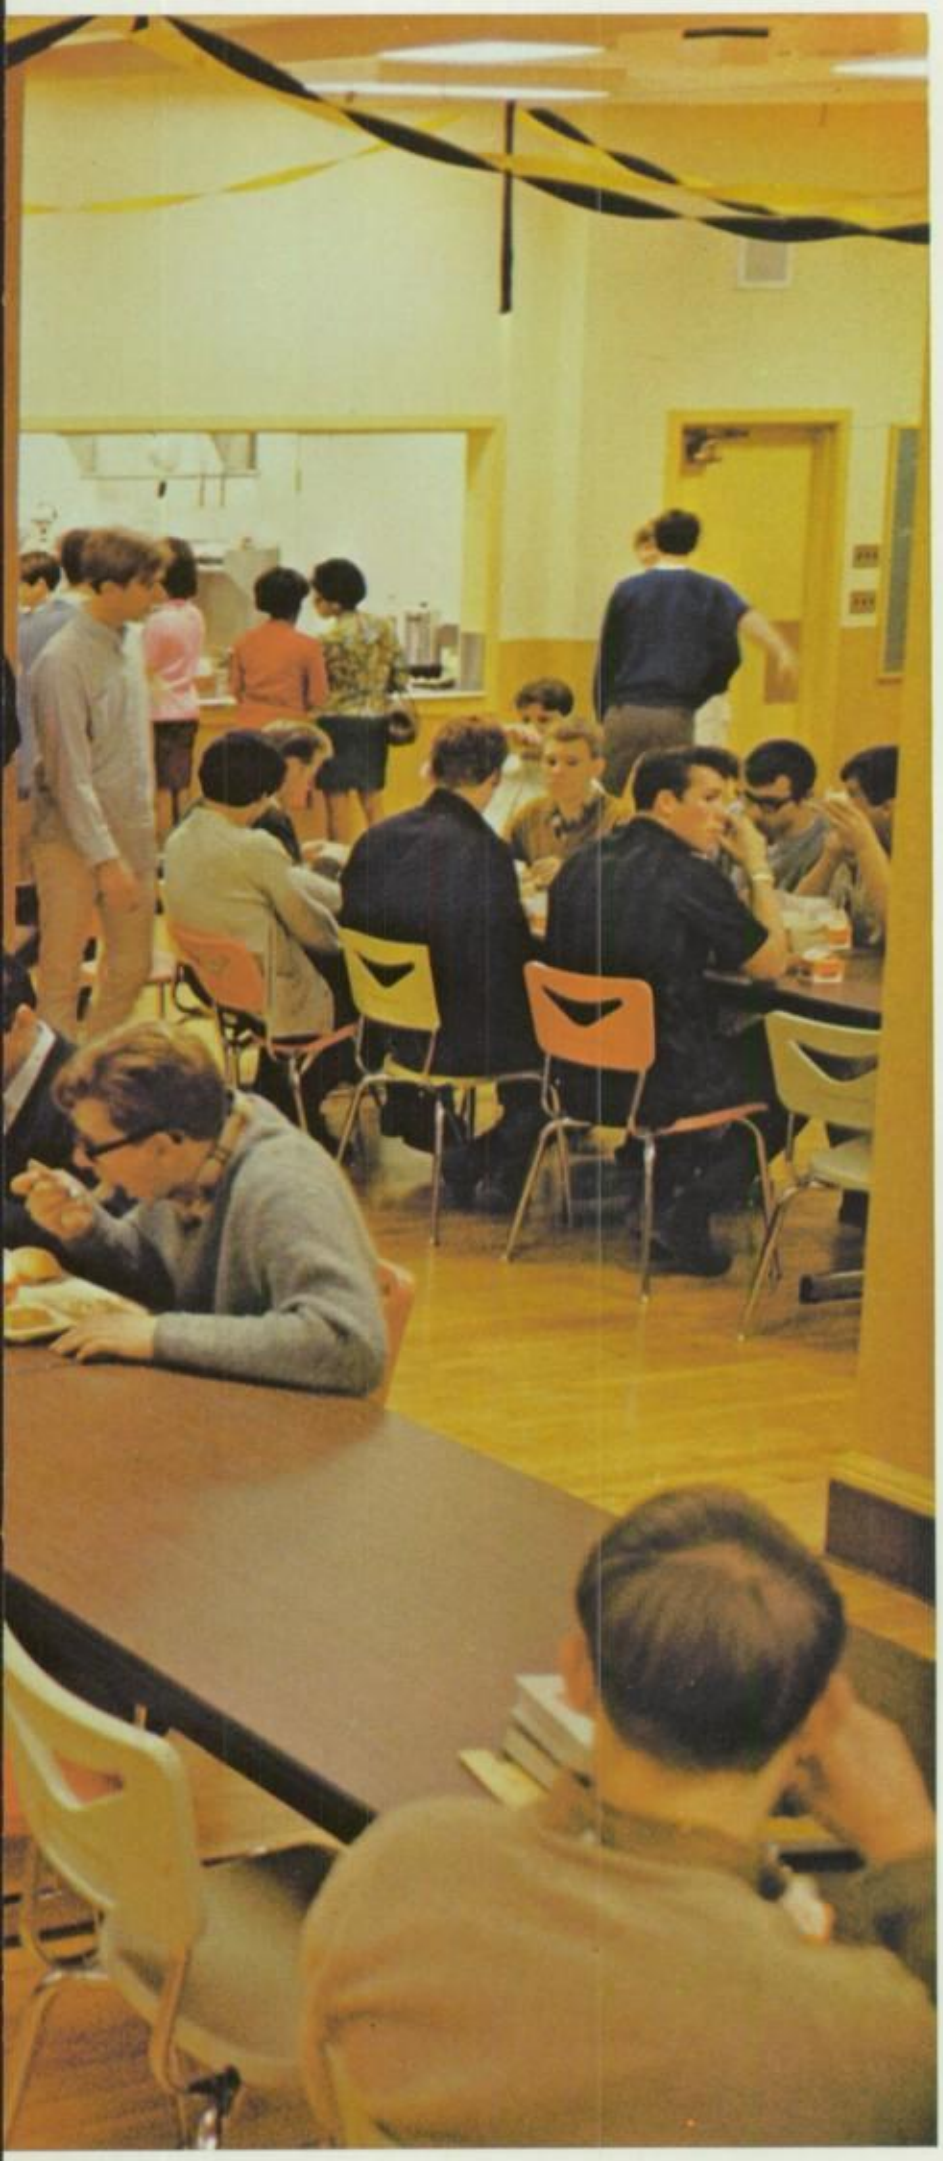
Change is a constant theme in our school. The plant, the curriculum, the faculty and the administration, and the student body each will demonstrate this change. In 1967-68 Lincoln High School began an extensive renovation of the physical plant which would ultimately affect faculty, curriculum, and the "style" of the Lincoln student.

We have not tried to remark on all changes but in introducing four-color photography as a Lincolnian feature we thought best to select three changed areas which most Abes will recall as distinctive in 1967-68.

The lounge appeared as a change from a dingy, crowded, girls' locker room to a place which gave Abes an opportunity for unsupervised study, casual conversation, and for "getting together" with classmates. As the year progressed the availability of a battery of vending machines increased popularity of this area. By year's end it appeared that the necessarily regimented study-hall had given way to a self-disciplined "lounge".



Lunch hour has usually been an eat-and-run problem for Lincoln High. The kitchen area, while maintaining standards, was inadequate; the faculty scrambled for seating space with students, and all involved cared less about lingering. Then, first changed in 1967-68 was the kitchen area. New, modern, and automatic stainless steel equipment gave the staff tools to turn out 400 hot lunches daily. A portion of the area was partitioned to provide a colorful, quiet, and available area in which faculty could eat.

Taped music muffled the rattle of trays, cups and spoons. The decor spoke for itself. After-school hours dance programs and large group meetings now had a place. Doors were cut at the rear through which tables and chairs could be stored in the stage room. Then, too, in the afternoon small groups or individuals who wanted more quiet than the lounge offered used honor passes to concentrate or study in the new cafeteria.

Several curriculum areas were renovated this year. Highly fundamental changes appeared in the D.E. department with the addition of an enlarged sales area, storage rooms, and a demonstration class-area. The home economics department enjoyed new panelling, closets, and larger work area. Guidance expanded to a separate suite with more counseling areas available to students. And all classrooms were furnished with new desks and cabinets.

Most pleasing to many was the change in the Business Education area. Carpeting appeared. "We are learning office practices. Why not learn in a real office area?" some said. Modern machines were installed in this area to give Lincoln students practice in current vocational trends.

Thus in these six pages are indicated some of the "colorful" changes of the year 1967-68. To some Abes, however, the most obvious changes will be noted in the student body as seen in the following pages.

Faculty, Administrators Impress Upon

Retirement in 1968 cost Lincoln High 109 years of teaching experience. Sheldon Brooks, Industrial Arts head, left after thirty years at Lincoln and 43 years teaching; Art Carlson, Business education, nineteen years at Lincoln and 25 years teaching; Miss B. Enger, thirty-three years at Lincoln and 41 years teaching. The student body regrets these retirements, but expresses best wishes for a pleasant retirement.

Further significant changes in the Lincoln faculty were noted in the addition of twenty faculty members. Transferring to Lincoln from other Tacoma schools were Bruce Alexander, P.E.; James Black, P.E.; Robert Iufer, D.V.R; Marshall Field, Social Studies; Mrs. Constance Miller, Spanish; and Phillip Thomas, Art. New to the school system and assigned to Lincoln were Mrs. Chiply Johnson, P.E.; Jerry Collins, English; Miss Jill Conwell, English; Glen Foster, Ind. Arts; Miss Camille Leonardo, Biology; Mrs. Pepita Sarmiento, Spanish; Mrs. Melinda McInteer, Drama; Dr. Zander Ponzo, Counselling; Duane Richardson, Counselling; Henry Arnold, Counselling ; Miss Janice Mileski, D.V.R.; Mrs. Eleanor Wotton, Social Studies; and James Shea, part-time orchestra.

Leaving at year's end for further study were John Breaky, Physics; and Miss Camille Leonardo, Biology.

Our year was saddened by the death of Mrs. Vivian Sterling who was a devoted and expert Social Studies teacher and P.E. instructor at Lincoln for many years.

to Promote a Final and Successful Year

For the class of '68 their high school days have ended. They will look back on many pleasant and fun filled memories of their senior year at Lincoln.

The seniors began early in the year to prepare for the senior activities yet to come. The first of such activities was to sell T-shirts. These were white with black and gold stripes on the sleeves. They were available either '68, '69 or '70 printed in bold black letters on the front and back. This was one of the many new and different ideas of the senior class. The profits were to help in financing the Senior Ball and Cruise.

In December they held their annual Christmas card, wrapping paper and candle sale building their funds even higher.

On October 17th the seniors made their way to Pacific Lutheran University to take the Washington Pre-College Tests, much to the surprise of the students the long day of testing began with "Roger Ramjet". After the tests the futures of these students was brought closer into focus.

The Senior Ball, for the first time in Lincoln's history, took place out of town. The scene was the Hyatt House at Sea-Tac Airport on March 30. Decorations were carried out in the theme of "Try to Remember".

"Two Bottles of Relish" was presented for the night of One-Acts by the senior class.

April 19th brought back childhood days to many seniors and underclassmen as they presented a show headlined by J.P. Patches and his pals.

The senior class on May 3rd presented the hit comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace" before a cheering audience.

As the year came to an end there was one final senior activity that the seniors looked forward to, June 3rd and graduation. Commencement exercises were held at the University of Puget Sound Fieldhouse.

This grand finale brought together the Class of '68 for its final fling to express that "NEVER AGAIN WILL THEY CREATE A BETTER CLASS THAN 68!"

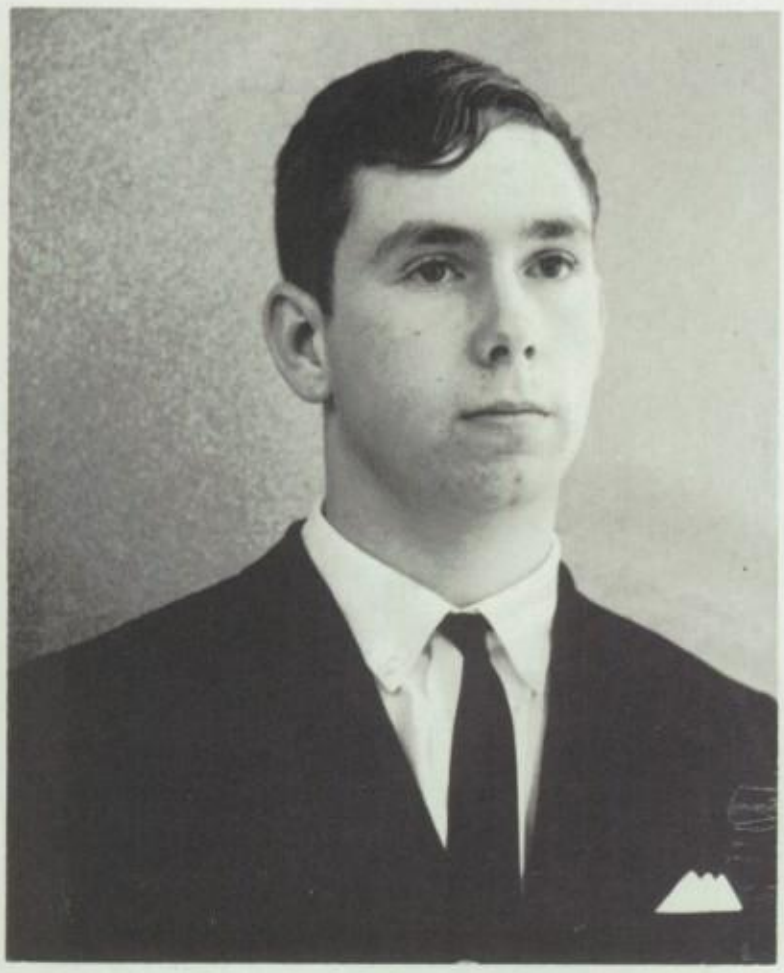
Spirited Juniors Give Tough Competition



PRESIDENT
Carl Wilgus

Immediately the Junior class displayed its loyalty when in September it changed its class yell to the more catchy line of "All the others are far behind the mighty Abes of '69!" The class let few forget it as they clamored to all the pep assemblies and widely attended all games. In class competition the juniors favored well by many times obtaining the pep jug and by contributing the most food in the Thanksgiving charity basket drive.

Their money raising projects were led by the Lincoln license plate sale. This they started Christmas time. The money they gained along with bake sale profits added nicely to their treasury.

The Junior class officers continued the tradition of polishing Lincoln's trophies and of serving at the Senior Ball. They also began early making plans for the Junior's highlights of the year—the prom. This year its chosen theme was "Et Maintenant" (French meaning "What now my Love").

Junior Class Officers Kathy McDonald, Kathy Main, Shelly Johntson, Vicki Liefson, Craig Whitney, and Carl Wilgus traditionally polish trophies.

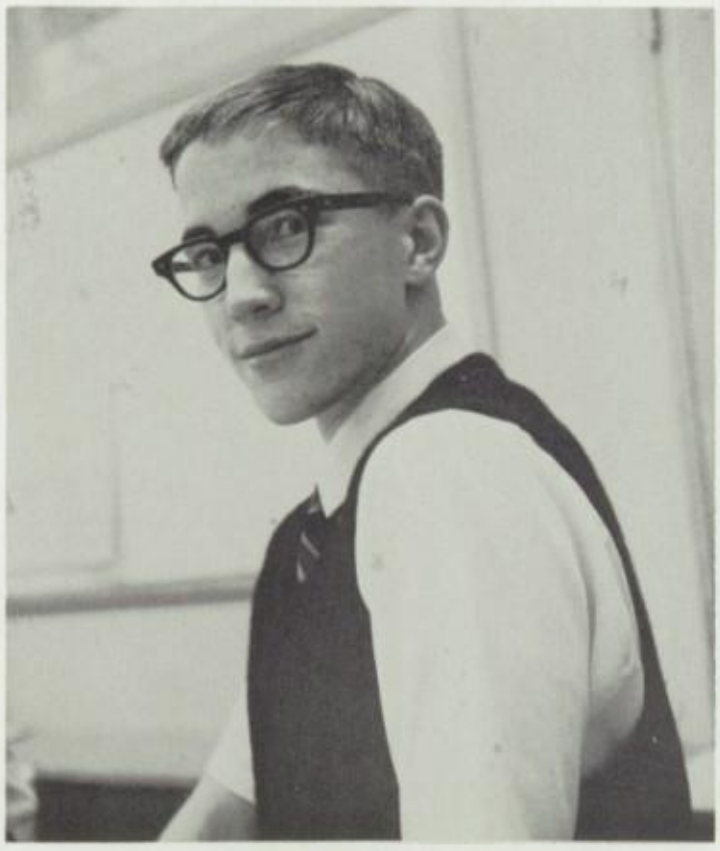
Sophomores Boast, a Better Class There'll



Brue Hammer
Sophomore Class President

Upon leaving Junior High School, sophomores mark the end of an era and the beginning of a new.

The first pep assembly and class competition was the first real introduction to school spirit which gained in momentum as the year progressed.

To support their class, popcorn was sold at all of our home basketball games. The ingenuity and creativity of the class of '70 presented Lincoln with the novelty of a Psychedelic Bakesale. They were also the originators of "Martha's Eat-In."

Lincoln's first Spring dance was sponsored by the sophomores, presenting "Sandy and the Nerve."

The sophomore class now having contact with the social and academic concept of a high school will be able to set an example for the forth coming class and build for the future.

The traditional washing of the Abe Lincoln statue is performed by sophmore class officers, President, B. Hammer; Boy's Rep. D. Hansen; Girl's Rep. S. Beckman; Secretary, J. Main; Treasurer, K. Riipi; and Vice President, K. Rowe.

Exchange Programs, Keep Council Busy

Pres. — Carl Carlson, V.P. — Larry Kolono

Finance Com. — Lily Rea

With the completion of the Student Commons, the Student Council already had their first assignment cut out for them. Rules were drawn up according to what could and what could not be done while in the Commons. The one main rule stressed was that this Student Council is strictly for the students and they are to treat it as they would their own property.

Activity Ticket sales was the second project undertaken by the Council. Lily Rea, the Finance Commissioner did an excellent job promoting the sale. Although the race was very close, Mount Tahoma won the contest by a mere six percent.

The Council also set up two student exchanges with other high schools. The first of these was with Weatherwax in Aberdeen. Twenty members of their Senate observed one of Lincoln's Senate meetings as well as went to classes. The second exchange was made with Woodrow Wilson. A total of nine Wilsonites checked into Lincoln, were assigned homerooms and counselors as well as regular classes.

Not only did they have to do the work assigned here, but they also had to keep up with their regular classes at Wilson.

After many heated debates, the Council changed the traditional homecoming date from Thanksgiving to Christmas. Instead of centering the many festivities around the annual Turkey Day game, it was decided that the newly established Christmas Tournament would be a wiser choice.

As the year came to an end, elections were held and the previous Council members were replaced with new ones.

New Bulletin Board, Meeting Place, and

Placing a bulletin board on the second floor wall was one of the major tasks undertaken by the Senate this year. The board gives such information as dates of wrestling matches and basketball games, meeting dates for club organizations, and news of coming events.

Other projects include the establishment of a new meeting place, the old one being changed from the auditorium to the lunchroom, and during basketball season the meetings will be held on Monday mornings rather than Tuesday, enabling senators to participate in the pep assemblies. The Inter-high Council was also formed.

The latest bill is one which will place benches outside by the flower boxes for students to sit on during the spring months.

Larry Kolono presides over Tuesday morning Senate meeting.

Senators discuss controversial change of Homecoming from November to December.

Torch pin, a sign of scholastic excellence, is the goal of every member of the Honor Society.

To be a member of Honor Society a student must have a 3.2 grade point average and must continue this average throughout Lincoln. But grades are not all. A member of service credits must be earned if a member is to recieve his torch pin.

During the senior year, an opportunity is given to earn service credits through such jobs as selling bus tickets, and typing for teachers, in order that the torch pin may be earned.

Club meetings were held every third Monday. The work of the club is carried on almost entirely by individual members in their services to the school and by the selling of the under graduates class pictures. The presidency of the Honor Society was filled by Carol Scalise. Handling the post of faculty advisor of the Honor Society was Miss Brinegar.

The biggest event of the year is the annual banquet, but the fulfillment of three years work is brought to a close at commencement when the torch pins are presented.

In addition to the annual tolo, Girls' Club presented a masquerade tolo for the first time, entitled the "Great Pumpkin Masquerade."

Serving the community this year, the Girls' Club co-sponsored the annual Thanksgiving Day baskets, which are handed out to families in the area.

Other activities for the year included the annual fashion show, the father-daughter banquet, the teachers' tea, and the exchange with Stadium High School.

The installation of new officers ends a year full of hard work, but most of all full of fun and excitement.

Continual service was given to the school by the hard-working cabinet members, backed by the girls of Lincoln, and advised by Mrs. Halsey and Mrs. Smith.

Abettes Subserve Girls Club Activities

Selling Daffodil Buttons in support of the annual Daffodil parade was one of the outstanding community services that the Abe-ettes accomplished this year.

Abe-ettes is a girls' honorary club. To be admitted to the organization, a girl must earn 25 points, by working on Girls' Club activities, serving Lincoln and the community.

The meetings, held on the second and fourth Wednesday of the month at 8:00 a.m., were presided over by the president, Linda Lloyd; Vice-President Gail Scott, Secretary Sandy Garl, and Treasurer Chris Andrews.

Wherever there is work to be done at school, the loyal Abe-ettes are found. This year the Abe-ettes helped supervise the Student Commons, and assisted on Girls' Club activities at the Masquerade and formal tolos, Christmas decorations, and selling programs at the games.

On the schedule of fun activities for the year were the slumber party, sophomore tea, raffle ticket sale, and the two annual initiations.

Key Club Brings St. Nicholas to Lincoln

Key Club is a service of high school boys which is sponsored by Kiwanis International and dedicated to developing leadership and character. This ach-eived through the performance of many worthy projects aimed at meeting school, community, national, and personal needs. Seeing Key Club in action verifies the fact that they achieve their purpose.

Key Club served the community this year by giving their annual Christmas program at Tayet, helping other clubs gather donations and food for the Thanksgiving baskets given to needy families in the area, and also participating in the March of Dimes drive.

The annual Howdy dance was sponsored by the Key Club for the purpose of getting the incoming sophmores aquainted. Other activities included the Driver Safety Conference, the Slave Day Auction, the Key Club cruise, and the annual Convention in Spokane.

As a result of these many activities, Key Club, under the leadership of the president Henry Hirst and the advisor Mr. Coe, proved to have a very successful year.

"There are still a few seats down in front," is the phrase which might be traced to any one of the members of Usherettes. As one of the school's most active organizations, Usherettes participated in most of the main events of the school year, showing bewildered outsiders and mixed-up Lincolnites to their seats, delivering programs, and keeping order during the course of the evening.

Service is the by-word of these girls and their helping hands and willing spirits were in part responsible for the success of the Christmas Vespers, the "Night of One Acts," and various other assemblies.

Money-making projects, such as bake sales, helped the girls raise money for the Spring banquet, which is the grand finale of the year. The receiving of pins and awards, by the hard working members, is the main event of the banquet.

Lincoln's athletic organization, Letterman's Club, provides for and promotes school spirit and tradition, sportsmanship, and proper standards of conduct for athletics in and out of school.

Carrying out their concern for the school, Letterman's Club, set up and enforced an effective hall monitoring system. This system prevented traffic tangles on the stairs and in the halls., Letterman's Club also provided ushers for football games, held candy sales, and sponsored the annual faculty-student basketball game.

This year, Letterman's again co-organized and sponsored, with Lincoln Letter Lassies, the Lil' Abner-Daisy Mae dance. Presiding over the Dogpatch was Lil Abner—Scott Smith, and Daisy Mae—Joella Stadtler.

Meetings were held every Wednesday of each month. The advisor was Mr. Armstrong, and the president was Scott Smith.

Active L. L. L. Members Aim for Awards

In an impressive assembly filled with excitment and expectation, the outstanding highlight of the year for the Lincoln Letter Lassies was held as letter winners were initiated into the organization.

The L.L.L. is a girl's athletic club open to those girls who have earned a letter in after school sports. To make it eaiser to earn points more activities were started and one-half point is awarded for some sports.

Aside from service projects, the girls take on the responsibility of managing after school sports.

The selling of pep ribbions and pom poms added color at the games.

L.L.L. stands as the schools most prominent club. The vivacity and pep of its members stands as an example to the other clubs at Lincoln.

The exchange program promotes understanding between foreign nations and the United States. As a result of the plan for a new exchange, Lincoln did not have an exchange student this year.

Films shown by the Affiliation acquainted Lincoln High Students with different foreign countries.

The main money making project of the year was the "Ice Cube" sale. The money from the sales goes toward the exchange program.

Under the leadership of the President Gregg Kasner and the advisor Mr. Goff, the future exchange program should be a great success.

Education - Future Goal of FTA Members

Janet Anderson serves Mr. Hyland at FTA tea.

Future Teachers of America is an organization whose main purpose is to encourage and instruct students who are interested in the field of teaching.

In learning more about teaching in the classroom FTA set up skits and panel discussions depicting and analyzing classroom situations. Visiting Washington Association of Future Teachers of American Conference also helped prepare students for education in the future.

One of the main activities of the year was the annual teachers tea, held in the library on February 14. All teachers were invited to come and enjoy themselves.

Meetings were held every first and third Thursday morning of the month. The President was Cheryl Norden and the advisor was Mr. Coe.

Health Careers Investigate Medical Field

This year an old Lincoln club was given a new name. Health Careers, formally Future Nurses, offers opportunities to learn more about the many health fields.

Such activities as attending open house at the University of Washington and St. Joseph's hospital helped promote friendship among students with a common interest and assisted members in the selection of a career.

Meetings were held the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 8 a.m. in the Library.

Members of the Health Careers kept busy working on a pattern for a Cerebral Palsey project in the neighborhood. The project included working directly with Cerebral Palsey patients and setting up exercise programs for the patients.

Club, a national organization designed to promote career opportunities for students in the field of distribution, this year was under the leadership of Governor, Opal Hodge; President, Dennis Williams; and Advisor, Mrs. Doerner. Meetings were not held on a regular day, but were held frequently.

The attractively decorated showcase on the second and third floor, and the managing of the D.E. Den were all handled by the D.E. Club.

D.E. Club took part in various contests throughout the year. At the annual State Leadership Training Conference, Lincoln was well represented. Diane Harmon received a first place trophy in "Hard-line Selling," and Steve Winnie received a first place trophy in "Impromtu Speaking."

Pep Club Elevates Spirit and Enthusiasm

Pep Club skit brings laughter to pep assembly.

at Athletic Events as well as at School

Decorated goal posts, painted pep signs appearing in the auditorium, and colorful pep buttons can all be credited to the active members of Pep Club.

This year's Pep Club, numbering nearly two-hundred, was lead by President, Cathy Peffers; and this year's new Advisor, Mrs. McInteer.

Pep Club was responsible for selling the black and gold ribbons with humorous "go gettum" slogans on them. Also, before the Grid-Go-Round, Pep Club organized a spirited pep parade consisting of about twenty-five carloads of excited, screaming students, getting one of the biggest games of the year off to a good start.

However the club did not confine it's activities strictly to home games, either, but organized bus loads to carry students to out of town games.

The purpose of the Pep Club is to promote pep and enthusiasm around school and at games. The enthusiastic, cheering which has accompanied Abe sportsman throughout the year, gave ample proof that the 1968 Pep Club has carried this purpose out to the fullest.

Every morning from 7:30 to 8:00 A.M., there was a group of girls down in the Lincoln Bowl, with curlers in their hair, coats, and boots, practicing their marching skills. These girls were the loyal Marcetta Ki.

Marcetta Ki is a girl's drill team. They entertain the crowds at football half-times and at different parades, such as the Santa Claus, and Daffodil parades. The meetings took place in the Lincoln Bowl regardless of the weather.

Marching is not all the Marcetta Ki does. They have adopted a small orphan girl this year. The child lives in a foster home and on special occasion such as birthdays, Christmas, and other holidays, the organization sends her gifts and toys.

This years officers were the President, Susan Kempe; Vice-President, Linda Kramer; and Treasurer, Nancy Schmidt.

Officers: Nancy Schmidt, Sue Kempe, and Linda Kramer.

Skill at Football and Basketball Halftime

Members of Marcetts are the choice marchers from Marcetta Ki. This group put on the shows at the home basketball game half times.

The girls change their uniforms every year. This year they decided on gold sweaters, socks, and pom poms, with black skirts, shoes, and gloves.

The club held occasional meetings in shop 6, and met for practice in the boys gym at 7:30 A.M.

Participating in the District Tournament was one of the big events of the year. Marcetts also attended Wilson High School tea, for all marching groups in the Tacoma High Schools, on March 13. Its purpose was to circulate ideas for different teams' routines.

The President of Marcetts was Susan Kempe, Vice-President, Linda Kramer, and Treasurer, Nancy Schmidt. The advisor was Mrs. Cissne.

Participating in the annual Daffodil Parade, as the only school sponsored horse riding group in Tacoma, is the highlight of the year for El Charro members. Several money making projects, such as cake sales, gathering cedar bough, and horse rides, raised money to prepare the El Charro members for the parade.

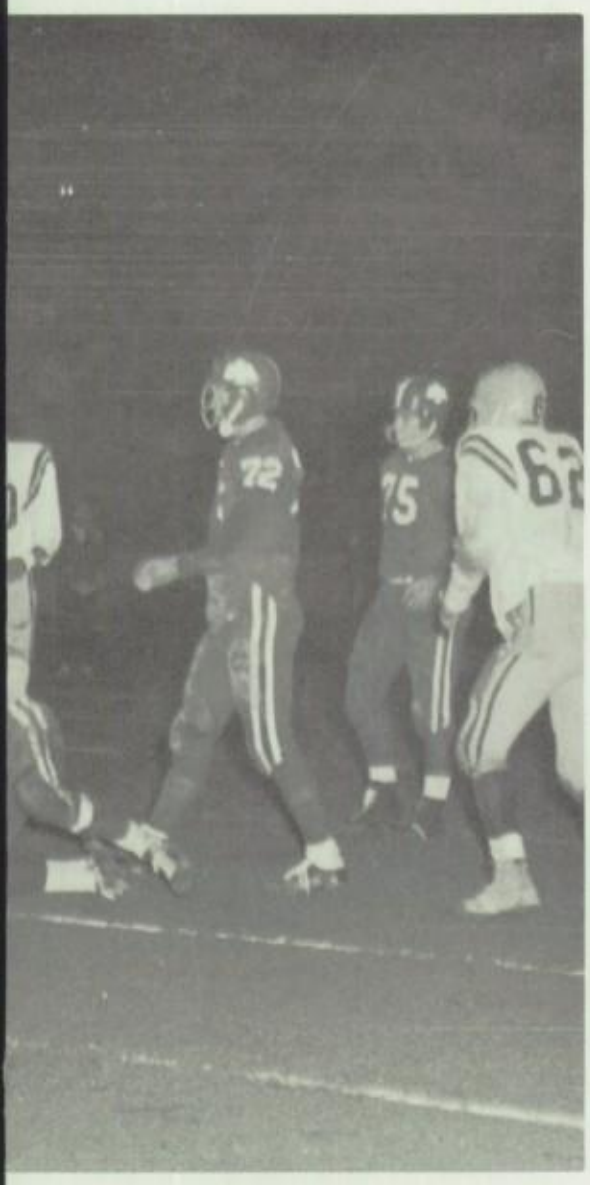
Lincoln Railsplitters End Year



This year's team combined a 5 win and 5 loss record. Their biggest defeat didn't come during the regular season, but by not getting to play in the annual Turkey Day game. It was the first time in the history of the Turkey game that Lincoln was not represented in this contest. Stadium nudged out Lincoln and then went on to defeat Mt. Tahoma in the contest.

This year's squad was led by all-city stars Scott Smith, Benny Horn, Rick Walsh and Charlie Mitchell.

Coach Mayer said that the "lack of experience" in the backfield quarterback position hurt us, but next year is very promising with returning quarterbacks Steve Cheslik and Chuck Adcock.

At the end of the season at the annual Football Banquet, awards were given to the tri-captains: Benny Horn, Rick Walsh, and Dave Carlisle. Rhandy Wesley was chosen as the Inspirational award winner, and Charlie Mitchell, who rolled up 789 yards in the backfield, was chosen most valuable player.

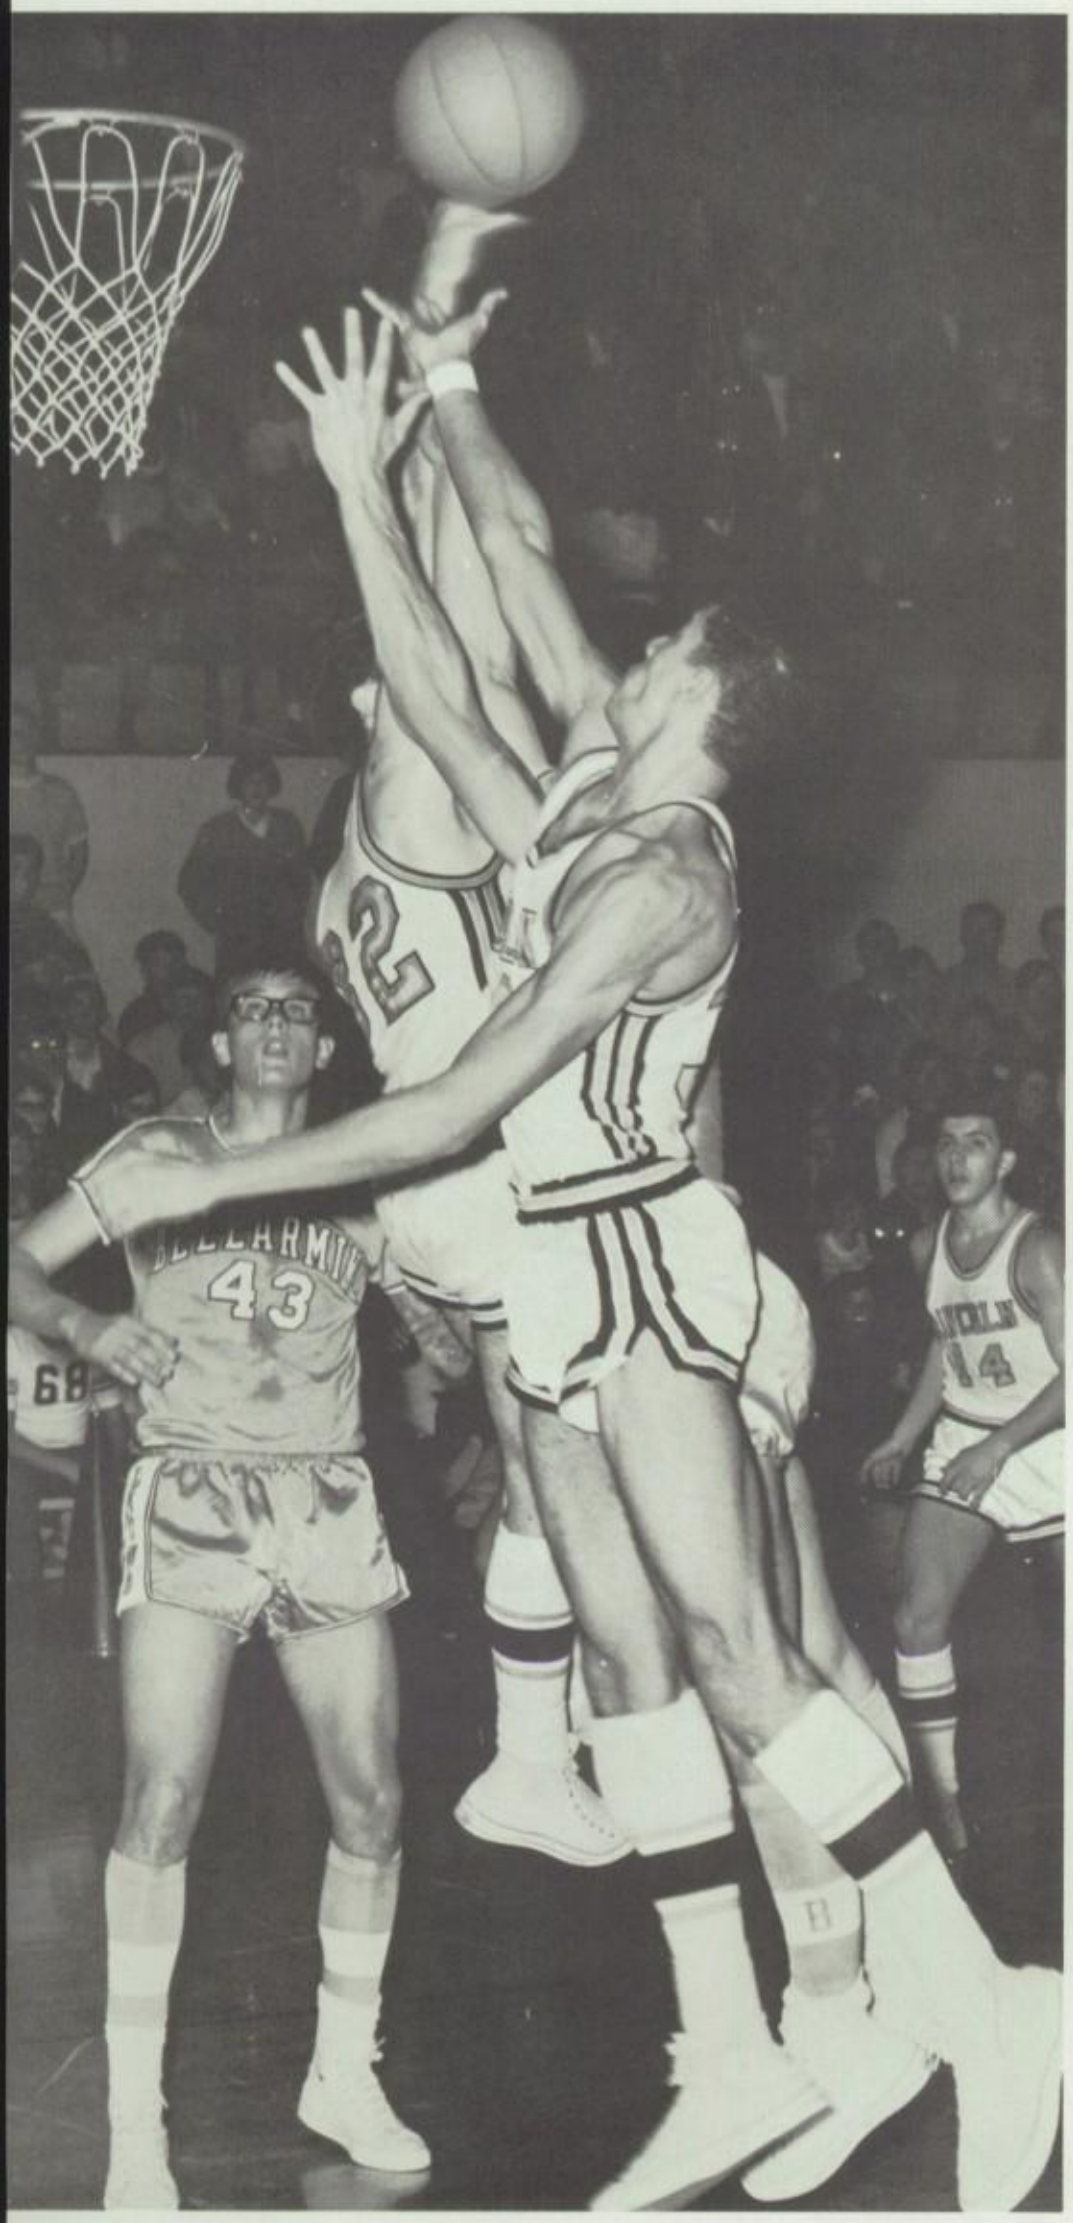
Abe Hoopsters Finish "Second" in State

The 1968 basketball team had the most successful season since 1944. "Our" Abes finished 2nd in the state, repeating the 1944 finish. The big seven worked hard, leading the way all season, ending with a 17-6 record.

Some of the highlights of the season were beating Renton 59-48. Renton was No. 1 in the state last year. The hoopsters won the "Hoop-Go-Round" by beating Lakes and Bellarmine. In the Reginal "finals" Lincoln "walked over" Bellarmine 65-49. With "all" the odds against Lincoln in the district finals, we beat the No. 1 ranked Aberdeen, 68-53. In the state finals Lincoln beat Evergreen of Seattle and then lost to Central Valley of Spokane 62-48.

Junior Dean Ecklund who averaged 15.2 points a game, was chosen to the All-State and All-City first team. Senior forward Jim Womack, a 3-year letterman who averaged 15.9 points a game was chosen to the All-State second team and for the second straight year All-City first team. Jim's continuosly fine play earned him the title of team captain. Kent Arave was the other team captain. Bob Hall was chosen the inspirational award winner.

Next year's team should have the fine quality of this years, if we can fill the vacancy of the big pivot, left open by graduating senior Kent Arave. Juniors Jim Johnson, Bob Womack, and Bob Harris will be back next year as guards. Standout Dean Ecklund, and J.V. hopefuls Doug Brame and Bill Fahey, will try to fill in for "Big Jim" Womack.



Bob Hall goes up for 2 points, as Dean Ecklund assists.

The 1968 golf team (with no returning lettermen), has gotten off to a slow start, losing their first four matches, says Mr. Norm Mayer, the coach. They do show promise for next year though, because they are all sophmores and juniors.

Coach Mayer blames the fact that there are no golf courses real close by, so it makes it harder for the guys to get to turn out.

The teams top golfers so far, have been sophmore Dave Burke, with 2 points and junior Bob Roswell, with 1½ points.

"In the last five or six years, Lincoln's golfers have finished either first or second in the city," Coach Mayer added.

4 Straight Wins, Shows Promising Year

Paul Ketvirtis winds up for a fast ball.

New Coach Doyle Hill has coached the 1968 baseball team to six straight wins so far this season. He is looking forward to city league competition and feels we have material to win.

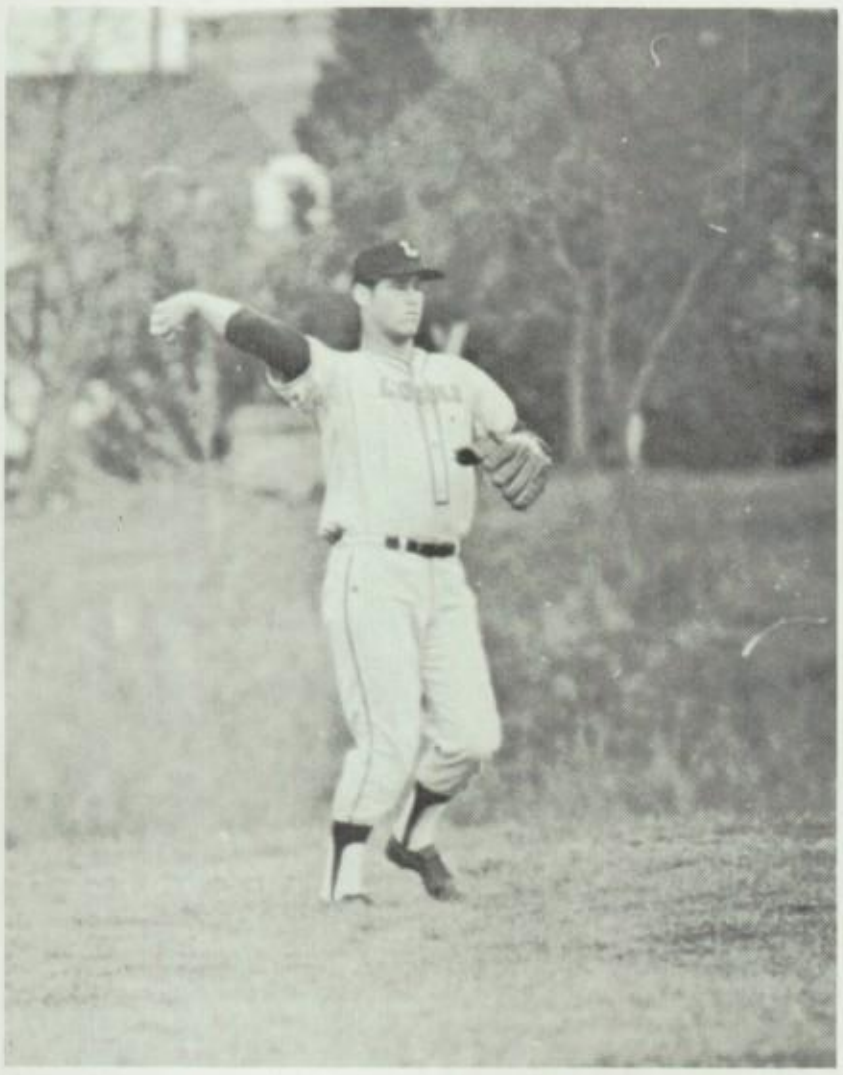
Ron Asahara a two year letterman (one of three on the team; Joe Kilby and Dave Carlisle being the others) was chosen as team captain because of his constant hustle and overall effort.

Mr. Hill had fine words for Gary Christiansen and Ron for their fine defensive moves throughout the year.

Joe Kilby has led the hitters up to date, and has done a good job as a pitcher too. Paul Ketvirtis a sophmore standout has also won two games this year.

He feels that next year should be very promising with five starting players back.

Joe Kilby connects for "another" long one.



Dave Carlisle throws the ball back to the infield.

Ron Asahara dives safely back to first against Wilson.

This year's Junior Varsity baseball team nas divided its first four league games defeating Wilson and Mount Tahoma, and losing to Stadium and Mount Tahoma.

Dave Hansen pitched the two victories including a no-hitter against Mount Tahoma 2-0, and 9-1 over Wilson.

Shortstop Terry Keister leads the team offensively with three doubles and two triples. In addition third baseman Phil McElliot and Dave Hansen have hit consistently.

Catcher Bill Melton and second baseman Paul Cook have led the way on defense. Coach Watte is looking foward to a successful season.

The officers and Miss Janet Niewold chose the theme which contained thirteen of his most loved theme songs.

Clayt Pollack and Peter Carder teamed up with Sherrie Rembaugh and Chris Carder for one of the performances.

The opening presentation was "Wonderful World of Color." Everyone was in five different routines with Sherrie Rembaugh soloing on "Chim Chim Cheree". The finale was "March of the Toys".
